From The Home Journal, Aug. 39.

"It is suck a story as all of us see and learn, many a 'time through life. We are charmed with the freshness and individuality of the subject matter, we become absorbed in the regular and beautiful unfielding of the personality of each member of the group; and we grow tearfully carriest and better under the kindly influence so gracefully hrown about us by means of Christian counsel and truth. The book will effect more good than a myriad of direct homilies, and we are certain that it will find a most welcome home with the better class of people averywhere."

As the orders for this work in advance of publication are quite large, those who wish a supply of the first edition should send early orders. As an exidence of the popularity of the sather in England, the English Publishers print 30,003 copies of the "94LLS OF THE SHATEMUC" as a first edition:

THE CONQUEST OF KANSAS,
BY MISSOURI AND HER ALLIES.
By WILLIAM PHILLIPS,
Resident Correspondent in Kansas of The New-York Tribune.
1 vol. 12mo. Price, $41.

The great mass of information received from the Territory of Kansas has been through the medium of telegraphic dispatches, always tragmentary and confused, and frequently false and contradictory. In this work we have the results of the actual observation of an eye-witness—a man fully competent to understand and depite the course of events, and disposed to state the case as fairly as possible.

The book is not a reprint from the columns of The Tribune, but has been written out in its present form. It will be found a graphic, tigorous sketch of the attempts to plant Slavery in the Territory; and, considering the circumstances in which it was written—the author having been actively engaged in many of the exciting scenes he describes—it is no more off-hand in style than was to be expected.

TRAGEDY,—the dates, places and circumstances,—so that every statement can be examined.

THE WORKS OF JOHN ADAMS: with a Life of the Author. By his Grandson, Charles Francis Adams. Vols. I and 10. These complete the work. The first volume is occupied solely by the Life of Adams. The first two chapters of it were written by John Quincy Adams. They give a highly interesting account of the youth and early manhood of the second President, down to the time of the Borton Massacre in 1771, when he had reached his 36th year. The remainder of the Life is written with masterly ability, and with the advantage of the use of much new material, hitherto unknown to the public. Much new light is thrown upon Mr. Adams's relatious with Hamilton, Jefferson, Pickering and other eminent men of that day, and upon the character and position of the men them selves. The work is one of the most important accessions to our national history that has appeared for many years.

CAMPAIGN TRIBUNE.—PRICE REDUCED.
We propose to send THE CAMPAIGN TRIBUNE for the balance of the Campaign, commencing with the paper of August 22, and ending (we hope) with the record of the election of its candidates about November 12. And, to insure that this shall be something more than a more dy-sheet, we propose to issue it Twice A were, and of the fall sire of our Duily. Weekly, and Symi-Weekly editions. We shall thus be able to give all the news of the day, with the best speeches in Congress, or elsewhere. Addresses, elaborate Documents, and full detail of all Flections and Political movements throughout this eventful canvass. There will be a great many cleap Weekly sunes for the Campaign, with which we prefer not to compete or interfere; while we publish, at the lowest endurable price, one which shall serve as an Encyclopedis of the Canvass and be regarded by speakers, committee-men, and active workers for the Right as a text-book and monitor. We ask those who believe such a paper will do good, to aid us in extending its circulation.

A DVERTISING.—V. B. PALMER.—The business of ADVERTISING is imperfectly understood by Merchants renerally. Mr. PALMER'S greatesperience and extensive Agency enable him to give very important and valuable suggestions in these matters to all who may favor him with an interview. The subject, as presented by him, is worthy the sericus attention of all persons engaged in active business. From an intimate acquaintance with Mr. Palmer, we are prepared to say that any business connected with the Agencies which he advertises, will be both promptly and honorably transacted. In the matter of Newspaper Agencies, he has reduced the business to such an admirable system that all parties can hardly fall to be satisfied.
